REMINDER OF THE LEGAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE POSTAL VOTING

Article 131 bis of law n° 17-95 on joint stock companies as amended:

“Articles of association may provide that any shareholder may vote by mail using a form.

Forms giving no sense of voting or expressing an abstention shall not be taken into consideration for the calculation of the majority of votes.

The voting form sent to the company for a meeting is valid for the meetings successively convened with the same agenda. As of the convening of the meeting, a postal voting form and its appendices shall be delivered or sent, at the expense of the company, to any shareholder requesting, by any means provided for in the articles of association or in the convening notice. The company must answer such requests no later than ten days before the date of the meeting. [...].

For the purpose of calculating the quorum, are only taken into account the forms received by the company prior to the meeting. The date on which the voting forms received by the company will no longer be taken into account may not be more than two days prior to the date of the meeting. The contents of the postal voting form and the documents to be annexed thereto are fixed by decree”.

Extract of article 3 of decree n° 2-09-481 dated of December 21st, 2009 for the incorporation of law n° 17-95 governing joint stock companies:
